Indiana University Turkish Flagship Program is offering an accelerated Turkish language course this Spring. This course is designed to develop students’ communicative competence by focusing on four language skills and linguistically and culturally immersing them into the language at an accelerated pace.
Sign up for this course and complete one academic year’s worth of Introductory Turkish I and II in three months!